

View this email in your browser

PCC News

September 2020

Welcome to the latest news update from Norfolk's Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) Lorne Green.

For more information on the role, responsibilities and work of the PCC, please visit www.norfolk-pcc.gov.uk.

Budget challenges brought into focus at virtual accountability meeting

The PCC held a Police Accountability Forum with Norfolk's Chief Constable this week to hold him to account for the county's policing service. On the agenda: the police response to Covid, Norfolk's policing budget and police complaints.

Find out more and watch the meeting>>

PCC responds to parliamentary briefing on women in the penal system

In his support for the briefing by the All Party Parliamentary Group on Women in the Penal System, the PCC has highlighted the impact of the WONDER programme in diverting vulnerable women from the criminal justice system.

More on the APPG briefing and WONDER>>

Criminal justice partners commended for efforts during pandemic

Plans to ensure the criminal justice system continues effectively despite the challenges of the Covid pandemic were commended at a recent meeting of the Local Criminal Justice Board.

More information>>

Scheme to help turn prisoners' lives around while rehoming dogs proves a success

A scheme which aims to improve the well-being and mental health of prisoners with a little help from a few four-legged friends has been praised for its success.

Read more here>>

Parents encouraged to attend webinars to help protect young people from gangs and county lines

Parents across Norfolk have been given the opportunity to attend virtual workshops aimed at educating them on the dangers of criminal exploitation of young people.

Find out more>>

Project supporting prison leavers extended thanks to partnership backing

A project seeking to prevent homelessness among prison leavers and reduce the likelihood of them returning to crime is set to be extended thanks to partnership backing.

More information here>>

Initiative to reduce burglaries and thefts in Norwich welcomed by PCC and partners

A scheme to protect residents from becoming victims of burglary or theft is being rolled out in areas of Norwich thanks to funding from the PCC's office.

Find out more>>

Copyright © 2020 Office of the Police and Crime and Commissioner for Norfolk, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

Office of the Police and Crime and Commissioner for Norfolk
Building 1, Falconers Chase
Wymondham, Norfolk NR18 0WW
United Kingdom

Add us to your address book

