

SECURITY ALERT

I have been informed of at least two thefts of oil within the village in the last few days.

This is a reminder of the need to keep your premises secure and also to keep an eye on your own and neighbouring properties. If you see anything suspicious then call 999 for an emergency response from the police.

Consider additional security measures to safeguard your property including garden sheds and oil tanks.

Colin Venes

Thornham Parish Council.

16th September 2022.